Old Business

Back to School night-

Gayle reported that there were about 40 parents in the meeting room. A few more stopped in a little late. Gayle said it was a very good evening and received positive feedback. Gayle said she did get some phone calls about the confusion of whether or not children could come that evening. There will be some discussion next year about babysitting the kids so that the parents can bring the children and not worry about getting babysitters.

Elizabeth did get some feedback from a few parents that wished Holy Cross would have also had a back to school night. More discussion will follow in spring about next years plan.

Brat Fry-

Jodie reported a $454.20 profit for the day. The weather was a little chilly, but the business was pretty good considering the schools were on lock down in the afternoon. This may have affected the afternoon sales.

The Piggly Wiggly opens its calendar for picking brat fry dates on the 1st of January. We will talk at the December meeting about several dates we may want to choose from.

New Business
