Treasurer's Report –

Mikki reported on the treasures' report, but was experiencing printing problems.

Market Day-

Brenda inquired on the drums invoice. $400 was approved from the mini grants. The money will come from the general fund account.

Carrie Gruman Trinkner asked for funds for music in Sept/Oct, but we have not heard if she purchased anything. Elizabeth will check with her.

The new reading counts quizzes were paid from the mini grant fund

Mrs. VandenWynmelenberg requested a grant for dry erase boards. The total cost is $75.95. This was approved.

Ann Geiser requested a grant for numerous small items for her class. The total cost is $200. This was approved.

Funset Boulevard

The date was set for Thursday, March 8th. Brenda called to verify the date was available.

Snowball Dance-

First Degree is playing for the dance at Holy Cross on Feb 9th. Sue and Diane have made the arrangements.

Catholic Schools week

Penny wars are planned for both schools during the week. Mikki explained the rules for each group of grades

St Als will have one classroom winner. That class will receive extra recess time
3-5 will compete as grades. 1st prize will get a dress down day and pizza, 2nd place will get just a dress down day

6-8 will compete as homerooms with 2 winners also.

All penny war money will be distributed ½ for heat bills and ½ for a needy family.

The teachers' luncheon is planned for Friday. It will be a "build your own sub" theme. Brenda will work with the pig on the main course.

All food must be to the schools by 11:30.

Breakfast Buffet

April 1st was the suggested date, Lisa will call Eddie to check the tri parish calendar and Brenda will check the Holy Cross parish calendar to make sure there are no conflicting activities. Lisa and Brenda will order the food.

Pride kick off for Bullying

Alice brought the idea before Home and School to find the interest in bringing the pride group in for our kids. Alice will gather more information and get back with Elizabeth. Home and School agreed to pay for the bussing to get the PRIDE students to Holy Cross.

Christmas ornaments

The group voted to have them handed out again next year. Brenda and Lisa will look at ideas for next year.
